

I am a consumer of both satellite radio and television and I just love these services. I would be very displeased if any of these services were restricted or removed due to special interest in the cable or broadcast industry. Please do not restrict or remove any of these products. I like to have choice in broadcast products and satellite radio and television provide me with the choices I want.regards,

Scott Bogart